

DK3190-M Cooker Hood

Professional-looking chimney in pure stainless steel

The chimney on this cooker hood is all stainless steel – pure, professional and elegant. It emphasizes a true sense of professionalism in your kitchen.

Efficient control over the vapour extraction rate

The slide control has three settings, so you can set the rate of extraction to efficiently match your specific needs.

Large hood ideal for larger cooking zones

The cooker hood's large size maximises the benefits of a larger cooking zone. It enables the hood to extract all vapours and cooking odours effectively.
